LONDON, Feb. 23.—Sustained by a 330-168 vote of support in the House of Commons, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain went ahead today with his plans to make "peace" with Premier Mussolini.

Chamberlain obtained parliamentary approval of his foreign policy when the house overwhelmingly defeated a Laborite motion of censure for the government's plan to make a deal with Il Duce—a program which caused Anthony Eden to resign as foreign secretary.

The defeated censure motion stated the house had no confidence in the government's conduct of foreign affairs. Had the commons supported the motion, the Chamberlain ministry would have been forced to resign.

Confidence Of Parliament

But rejection of the motion means that the government now has the complete confidence and support of a majority of members of parliament and that Chamberlain can move forward unhampered with his program of talks with Italy aimed at an Anglo-Italian and then general European appeasement.

Runners that Eden might attempt to form a left-wing conservative bloc to combat Chamberlain's foreign policy were discounted by informed quarters.

Prolonged cheering in the house greeted the decisive vote, which gave Chamberlain a free hand to make deals with Europe's dictators independently of the League of Nations.

The vote followed a searing debate during which charges were hurled that Chamberlain's policies (Continued On Page Two)

Folks along North Crawford avenue, appreciate the effort of the street department to improve the "going" on their street, with several applications of ashes, but the rains and traffic soon work out much of the ashes from the holes in the street. They are hoping that North Crawford avenue, is on the list of streets to be fixed this spring or summer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Colbert of 405 Clayton street have discovered that attempts have been made recently to break into their home, as attempts were made to force open live of the windows. Tracks of feet were found on the roof of the garage beneath the windows.

Going along West Washington street we could see a nice lot of blooming plants in one of the large windows of the West Side School. It gives a cheerful effect.

Aren't we glad that spring begins less than a month from now, although we have had lots of "springy" weather this month. An old gentleman said yesterday that this is the mildest February he has seen for many years, and that ten years ago he had noticed slip dripping from a tree branch to the sidewalk.

Flooded Farmland In Arkansas

SCENE NEAR NEWPORT, ARK.

Hundreds of families are homeless and thousands of acres of land covered with water as floods bring peril to parts of midwestern United States. Arkansas and Oklahoma were hardest hit. Here is a scene at Newport, Ark., where White river overflowed its banks.

Arkansas Continues Battle Against Flood

(International News Service)
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Feb. 23.—Pounding through levees along the swollen Red river, flood water today threatened to engulf the small town of Fulton in the southwestern part of the state.

With several of the Mississippi tributaries over their banks, the greatest danger to life and property shifted today from the White and Little Red rivers in the northern part of the state to the southwestern tip.

Two negro children were drowned there yesterday when they fell from a rescue boat taking them from their inundated home. Overworked Red Cross and volunteer boat patrols rescued scores from their marooned homes or tree tops in the stricken area.

Government engineers expected the next two days to decide whether a major flood disaster would result from the heavy rains recently. With no further fall, they hoped the rivers would drain off before much greater damage is done.

The White river was already falling upstream but still on the rise lower down as the saturated fields poured into the valley.

Earl J. Watt Post Aids Battery Fund

Veterans of the World War looked back at the veterans of the Civil War at the meeting of the Earl J. Watt Post of the American Legion Tuesday night and looking back paid a graceful compliment to the men of Battery B. The post voted to contribute $50 to the fund now being raised for the erection of a monument marking the first day's position of Battery B at the Battle of Gettysburg.

The action was a gracious thing to do and it is thought will be followed by other posts of the Legion and other ex-service bodies in the county.

Liquor Places Asked By Mayor To Close Early

Request Is Made That Establishments Shut Up At 12:30 A. M.

DECISIONS WILL BE REGISTERED

Mayor Charles E. McGrath today issued a request to proprietors of places in which liquor and beer are dispensed, to close their establishments at 12:30 a. m. instead of 2 a. m., as at present.

His Honor said that while he realizes the law sets 2 a. m. as the closing time he believes a 12:30 a. m. closing time would prove a benefit to the welfare of the community.

Further, the mayor explained that those proprietors who wish to obey his request may register their decisions at the office of Police Chief Ralph A. Criswell, from now until March 7.

Liquor places are permitted to keep open until 2 a. m. on work days, excepting Saturday, when they must close at midnight. They are not permitted to remain open on Sunday.

McNutt Boom Is Given Start

Washington Gets Preview Of Campaign Of Indiana's Son For 1940

M'NUTT IS SILENT AT HIS RECEPTION

By GEORGE R. HOLMES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Nineteen forty's first full-blown presidential candidacy breeze into Washington today in the person of tall, tanned, handsome Paul V. McNutt, U. S. high commissioner to the Philippines, and one-time governor of Indiana.

The weather was rainy and dim, but that did not prevent half a hundred newspaper photographers and reporters accompanying a like number of loyal Hoosier Democrats from forming a large reception committee to welcome the commissioner at the station. Several hundred leaders of Indiana democracy, who came here on a special train, constituted a large reception committee at a hotel where McNutt "headquarters" were established in regular political convention style.

Unusual Show

The national capital, which is used to various kinds of conventions and demonstrations, never saw anything quite like the show which the Hoosiers are putting on for their favorite son—two years in advance of the national nominating convention. They have taken 30 odd suites in one of the capital's most fashionable hotels, they have a press room for the accommodation of photographers and reporters, and other appointments of a national convention. Only the band and the big lithograph pictures of the candidate were missing.

Late this afternoon, from four to seven, there will be a gigantic reception for the candidate at the hotel. Some 4,000 invitations have been sent out under the aegis of Senator Sherman Minton, Indiana's junior senator. It promises to be quite a party.

Governor McNutt was smilingly reticent on arrival.

"No statements now," he said. "Wait till I get settled."

HYDE PARK, Feb. 23.—America's position in foreign affairs approached clarification today as President Roosevelt packed his bags to return to Washington and Joseph P. Kennedy, newly appointed ambassador to London, sailed to take over his important diplomatic post.

The President was leaving his family home in mid-afternoon to reach Washington late this evening. It was assumed one of his first appointments would be with Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

Kennedy meanwhile was embarking from New York after a full-day conference here with Mr. Roosevelt.

Obviously, the new envoy to the Court of St. James received final instructions during his Tuesday session with the President. What those instructions were remained a closely guarded secret between the executive and Kennedy.

Neither would comment on the British cabinet split over Anglo-Italian relations or Chancellor Hitler's declaration of Nazi determination to expand.

"Tomorrow" it was expected the President would see several of his (Continued On Page Two)

Parents' Strike Affects School

Peculiar Situation Develops At School Near Kane Over Teacher's Reinstatement

(International News Service)

KANE, Pa., Feb. 23.—Parents and school board in Hamilton township's Morrison school, 12 miles from here, today were locked in controversy following the reinstatement of a school teacher by court order.

Parents kept 21 out of a total of 31 children from school in defiance of the compulsory attendance law. But whether the board would file action against them, close the school, or appeal the court ruling remained to be seen.

The board dismissed Mrs. Christine Prentice last fall following a parent strike similar to the present one. Mrs. Prentice then appealed to the McKean county court for reinstatement under the Teacher Tenure act, after the school board upheld its decision following a public hearing.

The case was argued before Judge Charles G. Hubbard on December 20 and a decision handed down Feb. 18 ordering reinstatement of Mrs. Prentice.

Filed with the court order the school board met Monday night and reinstated Mrs. Prentice only to be met the following day with another parents' strike.

Whitney asked for $200 immediately and $25 a week from his daughter. He claimed unemployment subject was denied him because Miss Whitney was making $500 a week. Dancing Star Sued By Father For Support Enroute To Hollywood

DETROIT, Feb. 23.—Eleanor Whitney, petite 20-year-old dancing star of Paramount studios, today left an answer to her father's charges that she has failed to support him from her $500-a-week salary.

In a telephone call from Chicago where she stopped en route back to Hollywood, the young star told the writer:

"It's unfortunate that it has to be my father who brings this charge against me, but it is really hard about me he wouldn't attempt to involve me in this unpleasant publicity."

"My father has never contributed to the support of either myself or my 17-year-old sister since we were born, and as I have assumed his responsibility since I was 10 years old, I feel it is very unfair to charge me with neglect, although I have occasionally sent him money against my mother's wishes. But since the studio doesn't want me to talk, I'll have to wait until I reach the coast Thursday morning to make any further statement."

Tearfully she hung up the telephone receiver.

Her father, Allen, who was divorced by her mother in Cleveland several years ago filed suit in Hollywood this week, seeking $25 weekly allowance for his support. He said he had 72 cents in his pocket at the time he filed the suit, and that he had no source of income.

He charged that his former wife and his daughter lived in an expensive Hollywood apartment, while he was in need.

Navy Maneuvers Will Be Secret

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The most important maneuvers the navy has carried on in years will be held in the Pacific next month in absolute secrecy.

Due to the "highly confidential" nature of some of the problems to be worked out in the maneuvers, the navy department announced today that no newspaper correspondents or photographers will accompany the fleet when it sails westward to engage in the annual war games.

The maneuvers will be carried out over the largest area ever encompassed by the navy, to test out the fleet's defense of Hawaii and other American possessions in the Pacific. But there will be no pictures and no stories, except for a report by Admiral C. O. Bloch, commander of the fleet, upon conclusion of the maneuvers.

TOKYO, Feb. 23.—Numerous Japanese citizens were killed and injured today when eight Chinese airplanes bombed Taihoku, capital of Formosa, and other nearby cities in the first Chinese air raid anywhere in the Japanese empire.

An official announcement said 10 persons were killed and 20 wounded in the raid on Taihoku alone. The attacking planes dropped 10 bombs there.

Thirty more casualties were reported at Shosensho and Chikoku, near Taihoku, which were bombed twice. The planes also raided Shingchi, 40 miles from Taihoku, dropping 10 bombs, hitting several houses and causing an undetermined number of casualties.

(Editor's Note: Later Tokyo dispatches said the government, in an effort to minimize the attack on Formosa, attempted to cancel casualty estimates previously announced by the overseas ministry.)

The war ministry asserted there was only random bombing of rice fields, with inconsequential damage.

500 Miles From Shanghai

The raid on Taihoku began at 11:05 a. m. Formosa is located off the Chinese coast about 500 miles south of Shanghai and has been used as an airplane and troop base for Japanese operations in South China.

Gerard Warner, the American consul, and his wife were the only Americans reported at Taihoku. Several British traders, government representatives and a representative of the Society of Nations were said to be in the city as well as a score of Canadian and British Presbyterian missionaries. An Italian consul also is stationed there.

Reports that American and Soviet aircraft planes were not confirmed. The Chinese planes also raided Shingchi, 40 miles from Taihoku, dropping 10 bombs, hitting several houses. This attack caused several casualties.

To Study Air Force Increase Plan

Committee To Start Inquiry

Proposal Is To Increase U. S. Naval Force By 1,000 Planes

END TESTIMONY ON NAVY PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Having devoted nearly four weeks to study of the proposed billion dollar naval expansion program, the house naval affairs committee today turned its attention to recommended increase for the air force.

Stated to testify on the proposal to strengthen the navy's air armada by 2,000 additional planes was Rear Admiral Arthur B. Cook, chief of aeronautics. He was scheduled to be preceded by Rear Admiral William G. Dugan, chief of construction, recalled by the committee for final questioning on battleship construction.

Propose 3,000 Planes

The proposed increase in planes recommended by President Roosevelt will bring the navy's air strength to approximately 3,000 planes.

Chairman Vinson (D) of Georgia said the committee plans to wind up hearings on the authorization bill for the entire naval program Friday. The committee, he indicated, would convene next week to study amendments and report the bill to the house.

Meanwhile, administration leaders pressed plans to speed action on the authorized bill to take the profits out of war. Chairman May (D) of Kentucky of the house military affairs committee said his committee will convene tomorrow for a final vote on the measure.

EUROPTAN MOVES LEAVE FRANCE IN MENACING PLACE

committee will receive a request for another $500,000,000 for the armed service, bringing the total of this year's expenditures for war to around $2,000,000,000—the largest in the peace-time history of France.

To thus increase her first line of defense is all there is left for France to do since Britain's change of policy left this country's second line of defense—her allies—shattered, perhaps beyond repair.

The offer of Foreign Minister Yvon Delbos to resign was based upon collapse of the French foreign policy. This was evidenced by the following events:

Significant Developments.

First, Belgium has deserted and today comes a report that King Leopold intends visiting Rome.

Second, Poland has deserted and today there is another report that Foreign Minister Joseph Beck is going to Rome.

Third, Rumania has deserted, with the pro-German King Carol all powerful.

Fourth, Yugoslavia has deserted.

Ishbel and Her Fiance

with Premier Milan Stojadinovich fraternizing with the Nazis. Finally—Britain.

The eyes of most Frenchmen are now turned from France towards her enemies, the two dictators.

Twenty-three speakers have notified of their intention to speak in the foreign affairs debate scheduled for the chamber of deputies on Friday when the fate of the government will be decided.

Behind the arguments of each will be the realization that the proposed Anglo-Italian talks, if successful, are bound to lead to a proposal that France enter a four-power pact, abandon her agreement with Soviet Russia and concure in virtual abolition of the League of Nations.

Peace Conditions Seen.

Furthermore, chances appear weighted in favor of success of the Anglo-Italian talks, because Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain has now publicly risked his whole political position upon their success.

As seen here, the crisis resolves itself into this formula: The price of continuing peace in Europe is indefinite but not unlimited. At the time Italy and Germany are demanding of Britain and France the following:

Hitler asks a free hand in Austria and Czechoslovakia and isolation of the Soviet Union.

Mussolini asks domination of the Mediterranean, specifying that if she consents to support Generalissimo Francisco Franco in Spain, Italy must obtain a joint share in guarding the Suez canal.

Both dictators wish exclusion of the League of Nations from any influence on events if not its complete abolition. Failing to obtain satisfaction, the dictators threaten a military alliance to gain their ends by force.

Chamberlain has chosen to meet this threat by consultation and the French government, faced with the alternative of isolation with the Soviet Union, now indicates it may follow Britain's lead.

Meaning that for the first time since the war a so-called victorious republic feels compelled to recognize German and Italian hegemony in Europe.

Mr. Dodds then showed three reels of film published by the Pennsylvania Game commission featuring the wild life at Pymatungui Deer, common birds in this section and snakes and how to treat a snake-bite.

President Is Silent

Here at Hyde Park the president refused flatly to be drawn into any discussion of world affairs. Direct and indirect questions were put to him at a press conference in his study at the family estate but he parried them all with negative answers.

Kennedy standing by, merely grunted and announced he was sailing for London today. The President added that he hoped his new ambassador did not have a rough voyage.

It appeared that Mr. Roosevelt was waiting for British public sentiment to crystallize before making any observations on the resignation of Foreign Minister Anthony Eden and the ensuing break over direction of Downing street's foreign policy.

Pending manifestation of Britain's popular sentiment, it was made plain that Washington would undertake no new statement of policy.

The President had no engagements today at Hyde Park. Kennedy was his only major caller of the five-day stay.

MUSIC CLUB PROGRAM AT HIGHLAND CHURCH

To add further to the fun in club to the name of Washington is alike impossible for no one attempt. In several ways the prominence the name and in the naked, deathless splendor have it shining on.

With this quotation from the words of Abraham Lincoln, Mrs. Clifford M. Prepski, of the current, opened the program of the Music Club, Tuesday evening, in Highland church.

"America" was sung by all the members, accompanied by Edwin Lewis. A delightful program from the works of French, American and Bohemian composers was presented by Mrs. Harvey Brenner, pianist; Mrs. C. P. Reynolds, soprano; Mrs. Helen B. Ewing, contralto; Frank D. Taylor, Jr., pianist; Sam McChesney, bass; Chester Kelly, baritone; Miss Sidney Anthony, soprano; Joseph P. Reynolds, cellist; and A. A. Taylor, pianist.

After the program, tea was served by Mrs. Elsie McGee and Miss Helen Ewing, aided by Mrs. Paul W. Lewis, Mrs. Marian Campbell, Mrs. Edna Woods, and Mrs. Mrs. Reynolds. The table was beautifully appointed with a large bowl of spring flowers as a centerpiece.

At a board meeting preceding the program, a non-profit committee was elected, including Mrs. Jay L. Reed, Mrs. Clifford M. Prepski, and Mrs. Ruth Decker.

PERMANENT WAVE SHOPS

Washington's Birthday Is Celebrated By D. A. R.

Two hundred six years ago the first president of the United States was born. Last evening, in commemoration of that important occasion, the Daughters of the American Revolution had their annual Washington's birthday dinner in the First Presbyterian church.

Guests attending the delightfully planned affair numbered 102 and places had been set for them at tables decorated in these bright patriotic colors for which so many men have lived and died since George Washington's birth. The delicious turkey dinner was served at about 6:30 by the Hershey Chapter of the First church. Small cherry tree logs, candies, red cherries and American flags upon the tables added to the spirit of the occasion.

Mrs. F. G. Simonon, of Edinburg, regent of the Lawrence Chapter, D. A. R., introduced representatives from the Colonial Dames, the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Daughters of 1812, the Ladies of the Grand Army, the Junior Daughters of the American Revolution, the Daughters of Union Veterans, the Spanish-American War Veterans and the World War Veterans.

There were twenty members of the Pymatuning Chapter, D. A. R., of Sharon, in attendance. Mrs. Herbert Anderson, of Wyoming, a member of the Yellowstone Chapter, was present, as well as a number of people from nearby towns.

City Police Officer Carl Wallace was one of the guests of honor. It was pointed out that Mr. Wallace is eligible to membership in most of the men's organizations represented at the dinner for he comes of a family which has participated in all the wars of the United States for the past seven generations.

The guests introduced by Mrs. Simonon were given a cordial welcome by Miss Olivia Griffiths, toastmistress, Earl Kyle, past president of the Sons of the American Revolution, gave the response in behalf of the guests.

Rev. William V. McLean, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, gave the invocation. A selection was offered by a talented vocal quartet comprised of William McCombs, Robert Duff, Samuel McCleary and John Kyle, accompanied by Kathryn Neslie Allen. A solo was given by Miss Betty Mason, of West Middlesex, a Junior D. A. R., accompanied by Miss Debbie of Westminster College.

Rev. John J. McVaine, D. D., pastor of the host church, a veteran of the World War, gave an interesting talk. Judge W. Walter Brasham followed with the main address of the evening, an intensely interesting discourse concerning the Constitution.

For those not desiring to enter into so strenuous a diversion as dancing, card tables were set up in the card room, which too, were kept in play. At the close, the assemblage was served refreshments which concluded a most enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Earl T. Ramsey was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements and the menu. Aides included Mrs. N. F. Vidal, Mrs. J. A. McNeill, Mrs. Charles T. Hudson, Mrs. A. W. Meek and Mrs. C. J. Streib.

The program committee comprised of Mrs. E. D. Marvin, chairman, and Mrs. H. H. Thayer.

Already, the group is looking forward to a similar party in 1939.

OFFICERS OF CLASS AT GRIFFITHS HOME

Mrs. Trevor Griffiths, of 727 Court street, delightfully entertained with the officers and teacher of the Gleaners class of the First Baptist church, the members, in her home Tuesday evening. The event was held in celebration of the 20th anniversary of the organization of the group.

A varied program of entertainment was furnished during the evening. Those in charge of the entertainment were: Mrs. Harry Irwin, Mrs. Frances Hay and Mrs. Charlotte Donnelly.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Harry Brown, Mrs. Owen Penfield Fox and Mrs. Myrtle Klingensmith.

One of the features of the evening was a huge birthday cake topped with 20 candles. A grand march was held with those present contributing as many pennies as they were old. This fund went to the class missionary purse.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Griffiths. Next meeting will be in the form of a supper dinner in the church dining room, with Mrs. Walter Russell and Mrs. Frank Hay serving as co-hostesses.

Celma Hazlett Class.

The Celma Hazlett Bible class met in the home of Mrs. Howard Duff, Wilmington road, on Monday evening. Sixteen members and three visitors were present.

A very interesting letter was received from Miss Hazlett, after whom the class was named, written in French Indo-China, where she is a missionary. Mrs. Duff and Mrs. Duggan sang a duet, "He Comes To Me." Mrs. John Thompson from Brownsville gave an interesting talk about "Abraham" and "A Separated Life".

On March 21 the class will meet at the home of Mrs. William Gamble, Chestnut street.

Trouble Predicted, In Bible, Declares Pentecostal Speaker

Brother C. S. Tubby spoke last night at the Pentecostal church on the subject "Hell On Earth." He took what he called "two twin texts" from the Bible as the basis for his message, one from Matthew 24:31, and the other from Daniel 12:1. Both of these scriptures, Mr. Tubby said, predict a time of unparalleled trouble which is about to befall the world at large.

Tubby said Tubby speaks on the subject, "From Doom to Deliverance." Tomorrow night another prophetic subject will be presented entitled, "The Devil's Program." There will be special musical attractions.

"COLONIAL TEA" MARKS
EVENTS '06 MEETING

An artistically decorated table with gleaming silver service, and clusters of flowers set off in a colorful arrangement of red, white and blue in remembrance of George Washington, added much to the enjoyment of the colonial tea for the members of the '06 club, which was held in the home of Mrs. R. L. Hildebrand on Delaware avenue Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Carl Wilson poured, and a dainty menu in keeping with this motif was served to the assemblage. Miniature hatches and cherry trees in midget size marked the places. Adding further to this colonial and historic atmosphere, Mrs. J. H. Cox, in quaint attire, sat beside the big front window, which was filled with blooming plants, and silently busied herself in running the "old spinning wheel."

The leisure hours that ensued were spent informally with Kensington conversation and games of various kinds. Many of the participants were decked out in gowns "worn in the long ago," which brought back recollections that will forever be written about and handed down from generation to generation in story form, from mouth to mouth.

A short business period preceded festivities, when items of interest were given attention.

The next regular session will be held at the Y. W. C. A. headquarters, with Mrs. E. A. Caldwell hostess in charge.

FIRST M. E. CLASS
HAS SELECTED NAME

At the February meeting of the young married people's class from the First M. E. church, conducted Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Frazier, Highland Heights, the members chose a name for their organization—the Election class.

C. W. Irwin, the teacher, and Mrs. Irwin, were co-hosts of the occasion. A social time, with the serving of a lunch, followed the business meeting.

The next meeting will be on March 29.

SHOWER HONORS FOR
MRS. FRANK KWIAT

A group of friends gathered in the home of Mrs. John Flanagan, Smithfield street, Tuesday evening to honor Mrs. Frank Kwiat, nee Maxine Flanagan, a recent bride, with a miscellaneous shower.

Bride occupied the evening hours with prizes falling to Mrs. Richard Swanton and Katherine Frey. Later a tempting luncheon was served by Mrs. Flanagan, aided by Alice Mulligan.

Mrs. Kwiat was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

C. U. C. Club
An election of officers took place at the meeting of the C. U. C. club members held on a recent evening at the home of Mrs. Blanche Lewis on Burz street. The results are as follows: President, Mrs. Margaret Harman; secretary, Mrs. Fay Davis; treasurer, Mrs. Blanche Lewis; press reporter, Mrs. Althea Baxter.

A social time followed with Mrs. Baxter and Mrs. Lewis winning the prizes for honors in 500. Mrs. Grace Ferrell, who was a special visitor, was given a lovely hostess prize.

Lunch was served and the group later adjourned. In two weeks Mrs. Anna Nolte, of Cumberland avenue, will entertain.

OFFICER SUSPECTED.
(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—For fifteen years policeman Herman S. Wood in suburban Evanston had a record that ranked with the best. Today he was under suspension on charges of stealing a five pound box of candy from a delivery truck.

REPUBLIC STEEL EMPLOYEE IS OVERJOYED WITH SPLENDID RELIEF SINCE VENDOR HAD SUCH A NICE DIURETIC ACTION ON KIDNEYS.

"Every joint in my body seemed to be filled with pains, and with every step I took it felt as if someone were jabbing me with needles. Sometimes I could have cried out with the agony of it," says Mr. John Bartoli of 302 Jackson St., Youngstown.

COULD CRY OUT AT EACH STEP BUT NOW HIS PAINS ARE GONE

My food digested poorly, seemed to lay heavy in my stomach, turn sour and cause belching of hot, acid liquids that sickened me. I became terribly nervous and would roll and turn the whole night through.

"Words can't express how grateful I am to Vendol for the wonderful way it cleansed my bowels and stimulated my kidneys, bringing blessed relief from those frightful pains in my joints and the sour, acid condition of my stomach. Now I can eat as I please, sleep soundly and feel so good in every way that I am only too glad to give Vendol my full endorsement, hoping this will lead others to try it and find the same joyous relief I did."

If you suffer like this, let Vendol, made of 12 good Roots and Herbs combined with mild Alkalines help you as it has hundreds of men and women all over this state.

All druggists sell Vendol and it is highly recommended here by New Castle Drug Co. at 35 E. Washington St. and 24 N. Mill St., Schweitzer's Pharmacy and Ellwood Cut Rate in Ellwood City, and Weaver's Cut Rate in New Wilmington.

Howard Sturges Ideal Bachelor

Devotes Time To Deluxe
Entertaining Despite Recessions For Others

NOVELISTS ARE VISITING INDIA

One of the last of O. O. McIntyre's columns, written shortly before his death, follows:
NEW YORK—Perhaps the most illustrious proponent of the ideal bachelor life in New York is Howard Sturges, who as a matter of fact, an official resident of Providence, R. I., but his residence is in Manhattan and where he is called the International Sex.
Till strikingly down, he has devoted much of his time to deluxe entertaining, both here and abroad. And in a day when many economic restraints are down to their knees, he continues to go on as though nothing had happened to the world.
This winter, for instance, he decided to give a ball for the first time in his life. He invited the pick of his Gotham friends, but the engraved invitations were merely the signal gun for his bombardment of hospitality.
He had a special train of coaches to transport them to and from the Rhode Island capital. And furthermore he put up his guests in individual suites with a hand picked corps of expertly trained servants to anticipate every want.
Eleanor Sears, famous woman walker is seen around the city now and then, swinging along with the same jaunty, graceful stride that distinguished her when she was budding into womanhood and surprising the athletic world with her accomplished adventures into the er ambulant. The years have moved the Boston headliner's hair, but otherwise she has changed little.

Louis Bromfield, the young Mansfield O. novelist, touched off the Manhattan scene that now seems to affect so many seeking celebrity. Bromfield left his Paris home a couple of years ago and spent a hunting season with one of the Indian potentates and later brought his skin to Paris for swags around the mid-bellies. From these contacts Bromfield salvaged material for his recent widely sold book, "The Rain Came." Now comes word from the Far East that the ageless Lady Mord, formerly Elsie De Wolfe, has departed for a visit to 8-count 'em 8—Maharajahs. She has as her companion the forgotten wife of Somerset Maugham.

Earle McHugh, a magazine advertising publicist, has a rather disconcerting reputation for visitors to his office. Right in the middle of his desk is an eight ball mounted on a gold standard. When one sits across the desk to talk to him there is no certainty which one is behind the ball. He believes it is better for both to start from scratch and then work out of the dilemma.

Adela Rogers St. John's attractive daughter Elaine has proved a proverbial chip off the old block. The other day she hawked her first story to Liberty. Her mother sold her first fiction twenty years ago to the Green Book. Ray Long, as he did so many, encouraged her to give story telling a whirl. Incidentally, Adela with all the fervor which has characterized her career, recently became interested in farming and took on an acreage in Jersey where she now spends all time away from the typewriter, developing.

Irene S. Cobb has begun the autobiography for which many have been waiting. It is called tentatively "Mostly About Myself," and magazine editors angled for it for ten years. Cobb's career is especially interesting to the newspaper crowd because by instinct he is now and all ways has been a reporter. His journalistic ventures encompass every phase of newspaperdom—from "the" reporter on a Paducah daily to an ace correspondent during the world war. His most notable achievement, perhaps, was covering the Shaw trial entirely with pencil. The copy being rushed to the Evening World by a fleet of office boys. He has been an intimate of almost every great figure of the past two decades. And as Bob Davis once said of him: "His hat fits him still."

Musing: I do not think anything makes a fellow feel such a useless member of society as to try out skating after a lapse of years. Venturing forth timidly in rabbit strokes while virile young bloods sweep by in long graceful glides. (Copyright, 1936, McClelland Syndicate Inc.)

Dr. Bennett Tells Lions
How New 'Assistance' Unit
Merges Relief Activities
The new Pennsylvania law combining unemployment (formerly emergency) relief, mothers' assistance activities, old age assistance activities, blind pension work and the care of dependent children under a newly-created department of public assistance, was reviewed before the Lions club yesterday by Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church and for some years the chief here of all state relief operations.
Dr. Bennett, chosen last week as vice chairman of Lawrence county's new public assistance board, the board which will administer and determine local policies for the new state department, lauded the new act, tentatively known as the "Goodrich plan."
Members were told how the new act, No. 399, provided for the "liquidation" of the old emergency relief board set-up and substituted in its place the public assistance set-up. The new state secretary sits in Gov. Earle's cabinet.

Dr. Bennett said the new county boards in all counties except the largest, will be composed of seven citizens who will serve without pay. Paul F. Butz has been elected chairman here. A paid executive will also function.
Browne K. Thacker, program head of the Lions, presented the speaker.

Last month Dr. Bennett closed five years of service in leadership posts of state relief set-ups locally. Several times community testimonials paid tribute to his able relief administration.
Secretary Thomas I. Elliott reported yesterday that the Lions, during January, supplied six new pairs of glasses to needy blind persons.

AROUND CITY HALL
With crime rampant in many cities it was refreshing to receive statistics from J. Edgar Hoover, chief of Uncle Sam's G-Men proving that crime in New Castle was a tumble during 1937. In fact, the report showed New Castle in an enviable position for law enforcement.

There are several reasons for this. There was considerable relief work to help take up the slack from industries and secondly, the local department was on its toes. Due to alertness of day and night patrols and a fast working detective bureau crimes possibly were prevented.

There is no question but that the men of the New Castle department in ability are equal to those of departments in other cities the size of New Castle. When the radio cruiser car and detective bureau systems were inaugurated it went a long way toward efficiency.

The detective bureau, clicked. When offenses merited, the offenders were photographed and fingerprinted and if there is anything a criminal fears it is finger-printing. A copy of each offender's fingerprints and his photograph was sent to the State police and Federal Bureau of Identification.

Not long ago Lieutenant of Detectives Showalter brought every card up to date. In fact he can now tell when any offender was arrested, tried and the disposition of the case. This was done because some of the cards did not show the disposition.

In this work Showalter was aided by Miss Emma Carson at the probationary office. It is at the detective bureau that activity centers when a crime is committed. If fingerprints are found they are compared to those in the criminal file at the latter bureau, and this aids in apprehensions.

It is likely that Parks Director Joseph D. Alexander and Billy Glenn will hold a conference some of these days in regard to a portion of the Garze which yet stands. The city, according to Alexander, wants the timber removed.

As yet it is not known if there will be boats on the lake at Cascade Park. It has been learned that negotiations were to be held between a man who had an idea that it would be a paying proposition and Parks Director Joseph D. Alexander.

Report Gen. J. J. Pershing In Serious Condition At Sanitarium

Sudden Turn Is Taken For Worse

U. S. World War Commander Battles Death At Tucson, Arizona

GEN. PERSHING IS 77 YEARS OF AGE

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 23.—General John J. Pershing was confined to a sanitarium here today in what his attending physician said was a "grave condition."

"The outcome cannot be predicted at the present time," the physician, Dr. Ronald Davidson, said. He announced that he had requested the war department to send a consultant to Tucson immediately.

General Pershing, commanding officer of the American Expeditionary Forces during the World War, took a sudden turn for the worse, it was announced, as he was preparing to sit up for the first time in a week.

He had gone to bed with the return of a rheumatic ailment, but it became complicated with heart trouble and a relapse followed.

So serious was the general's condition regarded that his son, Warren, was reported on his way to Tucson.

Arrived Before Christmas

General Pershing and his sister, Mae Pershing, arrived in Tucson

Questions Right Of Physician To Examine Driver

MEADVILLE, Pa., Feb. 23.—A puzzling point of law bounced up here Tuesday in the trial of a drunken driving case before Judge O. C. Kent and a Crawford county jury, on the question of whether a physician had the right to examine an alleged drunken driver without permission of the accused.

Defense Counsel George Barco raised the point of law as he sought to free William Dederick, R. D. 5, Meadville, from a drunken driving charge. Cross-questioned, Dr. Luther King, who testified he examined Dederick and found him intoxicated, Barco asked if the defendant's permission had been sought and whether Dederick had been informed of his constitutional rights before the examination.

The physician's general reply was in the negative. Whereupon Barco moved the medical testimony be thrown out.

District Attorney Herbert Mook, arguing against the motion, referred to the practice of subjecting suspected offenders to finger-printing without permission.

Judge Kent said a better authority would have to be found to defeat Barco's motion. Court was adjourned until tomorrow, when the unusual point will be further considered and ruled upon.

Huge Ash Pile Is Being Used At Steady Rate

Use Throughout Winter Months Puts Big Hole In City Ash Pile

The steady use of ashes from the giant pile along North Cedar street, which was the property of the city of New Castle during the winter months, has put a great hole in the supply.

Although many tons of these ashes have been hauled from the supply in the ward, a great number of truckloads still remain to be hauled to needed places about the city.

The ashes are used for slippery places in cold weather and used to fill holes in wet weather.

Circulation At Library In Ward Shows Increase

Since the close of the main public library for moving purposes, the circulation figure at the seventh ward library, on Madison avenue, has greatly increased.

Washington Tea Is Successful

Affair At Christian Church Is Well Attended On Tuesday Evening

Rain Tuesday evening failed to dampen the spirits of 125 members of the Madison Avenue Christian church congregation, who gathered in the church for a tea given to mark the birthday anniversary of George Washington.

Patriotic colors in flowers and paper were cleverly arranged at the many tables in the church for the event. "America" being sung by the assembled group, opened the evening activities.

After the tea the following program was presented: Howard Snyder gave a clarinet solo; Miss Patricia Taylor gave several readings; a violin and piano duet was given by Ida Jean Mitchell and Jessie Jane Gilbert.

Readings were given by Betty Ward, followed by a solo by Rev. Milton Shearer, who was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. C. H. Clark.

A reading by Katherine Johnson, and a violin and piano duet by Delphine and Myrtle Jones, brought the program to a close.

Those who were on the committee and responsible for the success of the event included: Mrs. J. B. Bumgarth, Mrs. Adda Robinson, Mrs. Carl Houk, Mrs. Alice Bevan, Mrs. Saddle Pagan and Mrs. C. E. Amon.

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

Conferences Of Press Discussed

Columnist Questions Merit Of Chats Against Written Question Method

CONFERENCES

HELD BI-WEEKLY

Central Press, Washington Bureau, 602 Times-Herald Bldg., By CHARLES P. STEWART, Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Far be it from me to favor a censorship of White House news.

However, by means of a conference, a return to the old written-question-and-answer system of reporting White House news would amount to a return to a censorship.

It was not exactly a censorship before. Neither is the present system altogether the reverse of a censorship.

OF LONG STANDING

It might be proper to enter here a few details concerning these presidential press conferences.

I do not know just how far back they date, but I do know that the White House has them as long ago as the time of President Roosevelt. I myself attended a few during the regimes of Presidents Wilson and Harding, and a great many of Presidents Coolidge, Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

It always has been the rule that the president must not be quoted, word for word, except in certain especially permitted cases. Presidential utterances were "put up" to a "White House" spokesman. Or, otherwise, somehow, the quotation was induced.

TWO AWEK

Presumably there are two of these conferences a week.

Immediate queries used to be submitted in writing, in advance. When they were answered, a little editorial question might be suggested in amplification, or presidential answers but in the main the conversation was restricted to prepared lines. Interruptions, which the chief executive chose to disregard simply were ignored.

HARDLY CENSORSHIP

In a fashion this was a censorship, perhaps.

Still, when a newspaperman gets an interview, I always have contended that the interviewee is entitled to see his interview and "chase" it before its appearance in print. It is a nuisance and a delay, but I think it is the interviewee's right.

Now, this can not be done at a press conference with the president. At least 100 reporters are present, and a conference is not practicable for the interviewee to indicate so many interviews.

IT'S A CHAT NOW

The written-and-answer system no longer prevails.

The presidential interview is a more or less informal chat.

The president is asked unexpected questions, and answers, necessarily on the spot of the moment.

A query may irritate him. He may tell the asker to "put on a damn cap and go stand in a corner." That has occurred. I have known a newspaperman to be expelled from the National Press club because of his account of the presidential behavior was put to him. I should call that QUITE a censorship.

AS STEWART SEES IT

The White House Correspondents' association is a compact little body that depends on White House news to "get away" with its monopoly.

It is an intimate relationship.

It is not admitted to the presidential executive offices.

You are pro-presidential or you are excluded.

Maybe if you are too emphatic, the president must not be quoted.

For word, except in certain especially permitted cases. Presidential utterances were "put up" to

Osa Johnson Will Lecture At Geneva

Widow Of Famous Explorer Will Speak At College Evening Of March 10

BEAVER FALLS, Feb. 23.—Thrills await students of Geneva college and residents of the Beaver Valley who assemble in the college auditorium on the evening of March 10 to hear Osa Johnson deliver her illustrated lecture, "Jungles Calling."

Osa Johnson is the widow of the late Martin Johnson, international-known motion picture explorer, who lost his life in a plane crash near Los Angeles in January of last year. Mrs. Johnson suffered a fractured knee-cap but very rarely continued her lecture tour they had started together. Later on she came to Africa in the capacity of supervisor of the African sequences of the feature picture Twentieth Century-Fox is making, based on the lives of the explorers Henry Stanley and Dr. David Livingstone.

A "spindle" file such as this is less dangerous if the spike is bent in the form of a hook.

Ready To Start Drive Sunday

Twenty-Five Or More Sunday Schools To Compete In Campaign

The "claim" committee of the "Diamond Jubilee" increase campaign which comprises 25 or more Sunday schools already enrolled, has divided up the city into visitation sections for the various participating New Castle schools, and these will be mailed out tomorrow. The campaign starts next Sunday, February 27.

The plan of the campaign is simple and effective. The Sunday school furnished the average attendance for 1937, which is taken as a basis, and every one in attendance over this average during the eight weeks preceding Easter, will be counted a diamond. The New Castle Sunday schools will be divided into three groups based on average attendance for 1937, and the percentages will be run in the newspaper every Monday. Ellwood City features will be separate as well as Sunday schools outside of New Castle and Ellwood.

Visitation cards will only be filled out for homes containing children or adults not attending Sunday school. Their church preference will be noted on the report card and these cards will be left at the headquarters of the Lawrence County Sabbath school association. From there they will be sent to proper Sunday schools for follow up.

Next Sunday is "Young People's Sunday" and this is very appropriate as the young people in many Sunday schools will help do the visiting.

One Sunday school reported that they were going to have a team of young people to visit their territory some evening, and after the visitation was over they were going to meet in the church dining room for a social period and refreshments.

The constructive thing about this organized effort is that many Sunday schools are now using their initiative and are planning ways and means of improving their Sunday schools and increasing attendance and fellowship. They realize that it is not only enough to recruit new members for one or two Sundays, but that they must "sell" its advantages to the new members in such a way as to cause them to become regular in attendance.

Teachers Attend Erie Conference

Brook high school and Mrs. T. J. Hoy and Raymond Munnell of Marion Center high school. After the various instructional talks by members of the dramatic departments of Westminster, Allegheny and Pennsylvania State colleges, the day was fittingly climaxed by the observation of a professional production of the play "Elizabeth, the Queen."

ASK ROAD IMPROVEMENT

GROVE CITY, Feb. 23.—Citizens of Springfield township have filed a formal request with the State Highway Department for improvement to Route 363 from Millburg to Blacktown, a distance of four miles, which has been almost impassable for the past month. The petition asks for construction of stone and base road.

New Castle High Defeats Ambridge 37 To 32

STAGE COMEBACK IN GREAT GAME

New Castle High To Play For Section Three Title At Pittsburgh Saturday; Comes From Behind To Win In Thrilling Contest At New Brighton Gym; Eddie "Cash" Koszela With 15 Points And Nocera With Nine Are Stars; Meet Aliquippa Saturday At Pitt Stadium; Locals Great At Foul Line; Crowd Of 2,000 Witnesses Game

New Castle High School basketball team staged one of the gamiest fights seen at the Daves gym in New Brighton in many a day, last night to upset a hard fighting Ambridge High team 37 to 32 in the first game of the Section Three eliminations. By winning, the locals earned the right to battle Aliquippa High at the Pitt Stadium Saturday night for the Section Three crown. Upwards of 2,000 fans crowded the valley floor to witness the game.

Never have they seen a team that showed more grit than the New Castle boys did last night. Behind, the first three periods, the Bridenbaugh coached machine came through in the final period to win the verdict in one of the most thrilling games that has been played in Section Three. Eddie "Cash" Koszela, "Blackie" Nocera and Eddie Strausbaugh had a big part in the scoring end for New Castle, while it was evident that without Sniezek and Carey the defense would have suffered greatly.

Ambridge Takes Lead

The first period was strictly Ambridge. The Rubenstein machine went to work in a business like manner the first period and soon had a nice commanding lead of 9 to 0 with about five minutes of the game played. Near the end of the period the locals scored, first Eddie "Bus" Strausbaugh made a foul and Koszela, just before the whistle blew to end the quarter, made a field goal from the side of the floor. The first period ended 9 to 3 with the Ambridge boys out in front.

New Castle drew up 10 to 5 soon after the second period began with Strausbaugh sinking a bucket and Nocera a foul. Sniezek made it 11 to 6 on two fouls. Koszela blasted in a long one and made it 11 to 6 Ambridge. Ziolkowski and Sniezek made field goals to send the count to 14 to 10 Ambridge as the first half was just about over. Ziolkowski made the final bucket of the first half to send the count to 18 to 10. New Castle's chances looked none too good in the first half.

Look Different

What Bridenbaugh did to the New Castle team between halves will never be known. But it was a known fact that it was a different New Castle team that came back to the floor for the third period. It was all Ambridge the first two periods. It was destined to be New Castle the last two stanzas.

Eddie Koszela flipped one in from the side of the floor to make it 15 to 12 as the game was resumed in the third period. Kinsulak made it 18 to 12 by retting a field goal. Koszela sank a long one to make it 18 to 14 in favor of Ambridge. The locals were starting to close in now. Koszela went to the side of the court and made another field goal to send the count to 18 to 16. The New Castle fans went wild. Ziolkowski made the local rosters groan a few seconds later with a side shot that sent the score to 20 to 16.

Start Creeping In

Strausbaugh capped a foul try and it was 20 to 17. He made another foul to make it 20 to 18. Kroszky ranged a long one to make it 22 to 18. Koszela coolly stepped up and dropped in a foul for 22 to 19. With two minutes of the third period remaining the New Castle team made a substitution. Carey went back to the game for Marvin. The latter having replaced Carey in the third period and continuing in the game at the start of the third period.

Ziolkowski replaced Holet at center for Ambridge. Holet at the foul line made it 22 to 21. Ambridge made a foul. For the first time in the game New Castle went ahead just four seconds before the third session ended, when Viv "Blackie" Nocera made a field goal. He jumped the ball through the hoops in a scramble under the basket. The third period ended 23 to 22 and by this time there wasn't a composed fan in the New Castle bleachers.

Protect Lead

With the finesse of a championship team the New Castle boys went to work in the fourth and final period to protect that one point lead. They did a swell job. It was a great exhibition of basketball.

Holet made a foul for Ambridge to make it 23-23 as the fourth period began. Carey sent the ball through the hoops for a two-point from the side of the floor. It was New Castle 25 to 23. Ziolkowski made a foul. Nocera went under the basket and made a field goal to send the count to 27 to 24. Sweeney gave the Ambridge fans courage when he looped one in from the side of the floor. It was 27 to 26. New Castle.

Real Battle

It was a dog fight all right from this point to the finish. Sweeney and Koszela tangled and a technical foul was called on each man. Both made fouls to run the count to 28. Palmer, a 27 New Castle, with two minutes of the fourth period played. There was six more minutes to go. The play was fast and furious. Strausbaugh gave the New Castles

Louis And Mann Battle Tonight

Mann Has Chance To Win Heavyweight Championship In Bout Tonight

By DAVIS J. WALSH

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Always an asset to be held dear in the past, the world's heavyweight championship will be up for sale at bargain basement rates tonight as Joe Louis places his title on the line in the counter in a 15-round fight with Nathan Mann, New Haven, Conn., challenger, at Madison Square Garden. Mann isn't a normal challenger. He's supposed to be the subject of a clinical experiment, whereby Louis sharpens his scalpel for the sterner business ahead with Max Schmeling in June.

Nonetheless, it's barely possible that the subject will climb off the operating table, push the ether cone aside and cut the supposed stupor in a vital spot. If he does, the development will come as the greatest shock boxing has experienced in a generation, greater even than Jim Braddock's win over Baer and Schmeling's knockout of Louis in a non-title fight two years ago.

Nobody this morning is picking Mann to win. Few give him a chance. The odds are 5-1 against him and apparently his only hope is to go in there punching and clip this would-be champion in the first few minutes of play. Otherwise, the general expectancy is that Louis will win by a knockout before the end of ten rounds.

New Castle Sent Big Delegation To Game

There is a need for an engineer in the Daves gymnasium in New Brighton today. One of those fellows who taps the walls of a building and tells you what day he expects it to fall down. For if the supporting beams aren't loosened after the New Castle-Ambridge game on Tuesday night, its because they were put in especially strong.

The gymnasium was full. Not just comfortably full but full to the point where you weren't sure whose pocket you were getting into when you reached for your handkerchief. With the crowd filling the gym to such a point where the temperature went up and a lot of the spectators entered the players their short pants. New Castle sent a huge delegation down. A number of fans never got into the gym at all, getting their sport by remote control on the sidewalk. Ambridge sent nearly as many and the rooting battle between the two sides sounded like a couple of thunder storms going some place to happen.

The high spot of the evening came not in the gym although the entire game was one of high spots and suspense. Perhaps the one referred to could be classed as comedy relief in a bitter drama.

Between the gymnasium and the library there is a lily pool about two feet deep, 15 feet long and eight feet wide. It juts out between the two buildings and in the summer no doubt adds to the peaceful summer scene.

Several fans were hurrying across the lawn Tuesday night to the gym and took a short cut near the lily pool. They started to run, when suddenly one of them in a long black overcoat did a nose dive into the pool and rolled over. Dripping water like a circus seal, he made his way into the gym and the game.

As to the game itself it had all the makings of a nice fresh nervous breakdown. It was no place for a nervous guy. First New Castle played like a set of wooden soldiers in the first quarter and then in the last two quarters like a cane full of bugs with a collection of sore gums. We're still in a dither.

Establish Five Safety Records

Penn-Ohio Coach Line Operators To Banquet Thursday

LOCAL OPERATOR BANQUET GUEST

Outstanding records of highway safety in 1934 will be celebrated on Thursday evening by the bus operators of Penn-Ohio Coach Lines Company when they assemble in Youngstown for their annual safety banquet.

The dinner and entertainment will be given in honor of the drivers who completed either the first or second half of the year without an accident charged against their records. Nearly 500 percent of the men, that is 61 out of 64 made such records. Of these 45, or 77 percent of those in the service throughout 1934, completed the year with accident-free records.

In achieving this record the Penn-Ohio operators drove their busses 3,144,577 miles over the 702 miles of route comprising the interurban bus system in northern Ohio, western Pennsylvania and southern West Virginia and carried a total of 2,692,981 passengers. In this widespread operation over the most heavily traveled highways of the three states a total of 23 accidents was charged, or one to an average of 136,726 miles, equivalent to more than five times around the earth.

Five safety records have been made by the Penn-Ohio drivers ever since the operation began in 1922.

This Beauty Secret Comes From a Doctor

Most women don't know beauty secrets. Your own doctor will tell you that pale complexions and pimply skins are rarely matters for cosmetics. Because most skin blemishes are aggravated by constipation.

Dr. F. M. Edwards, during his years of practice, treated hundreds of women for constipation and frequently noted remarkable improvement in their appearance. He used a purely vegetable compound—Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. This laxative is gentle, yet peculiarly effective because it increases the bile flow without shocking the intestinal system. Try Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. All druggists, 15¢, 50¢ and 60¢.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile does not flow freely, your food cannot be digested. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour and the world looks pink.

A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes three good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel top and in. Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25¢. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

Happenings And Items Of Interest At Big Tin Plate Plants Here.

CO-OPERATION AND CO-ORDINATION

For the past several weeks we have been reading with great interest the articles written by individual workers describing the operations in the various departments and the importance of the processing in these departments in relation to the finished product.

We have noted the part played by the Bar Yard in supplying tin bar to the hot mill where the processing of the product really begins—hot bars are reduced to black sheets of various sizes and gauges. The shearing and opening and delivery to the black picklers where oxide and foreign matter is removed—then through the black annealing where the plates are annealed to soften and toughen them—to the cold rolls where they pass through the cold rolls to flatten and surface them—the white annealing process—the white pickling and then to the tin house for roasting with tin, lead or a combination of both depending on the specifications of customers. Then the assorting and inspection department where they are inspected and assorted into primes, seconds and waste and reworked into packages. From there to the boxing, warehousing and packaging departments and finally to the cars to begin the journey to destination which may be any one of 61 different countries, or to the local American Can Co. factory next door. In addition to the operating departments named, many maintenance and accessory shops are necessary at their various points to the processing operation.

To attain operating effectiveness it is of course essential to have teamwork. Team-work as between individual workers, also team-work and co-operation between departments as well. The management of Shenango Works is proud of its workmen and departments and the co-operation which exists between both workers and departments; also the confidence with which bookings can be promised for delivery at a specified date.

As to the most important department that, perhaps, will always be a controversial question; but the importance of co-ordinated and co-operative effort and good-will will always be a prime essential in the successful operation of any enterprise.

The importance of the safety of workmen is recognized fully by all from the general superintendent down through the different department supervisors, their assistants and every employee in every department. SAFETY BEFORE PRODUCTION actually means just that in all departments as their safety records indicate. Hazards cataloged and properly guarded are only a small part of real safety work. "Safety Salesmanship" is also necessary to promotion of real plant, department and individual safety. The responsibility is being shared by all.

Coordination of men, machinery, materials and the cooperative effort and good-will on the part of all employees and departments are essential to the successful operations of the industry as a whole.

PRIDE OF WORKMANSHIP
During these days of extremely keen competition and lack of business due to the so-called "recession", the desire of our workmen to produce a good quality of product is quite pronounced. This attitude on the part of our men was vividly manifested on this writer while walking through the plant recently. We noted two of our very efficient and popular foremen of the hot mill opening floor turning over and critically inspecting some black sheets under a rather powerful electric lamp. Being curious to know what it was all about we stopped and asked. They told me they were looking for the elusive "pin hole". One of the boys held up a sheet before the lamp and said, "Do you see that hole?" After looking at the sheet for a few seconds, I said, "No," and believe me I couldn't see it until he pointed out the exact spot where his trained eye had immediately detected a minute fracture. To me, this keen observation was amazing.

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS IN THE HOME
The combination of a bathtub and a faulty light switch recently claimed another victim. When a young man attempted to turn the lights on while taking a bath, before assistance could arrive, the man was dead.

Such an unfortunate occurrence will not happen every time, but it is these few times that cause fatalities that must be guarded against. Electricity is a force that will not warn one of its danger until it is too late. It is an unseen and odorless weapon that kills instantly. Just a moment of forgetfulness will in some cases bring the cold hand of death to you and your family. To be safe, light switches should be located out of reach of one sitting or standing in a bathtub.

While state, federal and safety councils are doing their utmost to promote safety throughout the various walks of life, we as individuals can contribute invaluable assistance by promoting safety in our homes and in our particular field of endeavor.

SUPERVISORY TRAINING
The second half of the term in supervisory training for foremen got under way on February 17. Our foremen are 100 per cent behind this program as their attendance at each session shows. Some very interesting and educational discussions occur in these meetings which are most beneficial and helpful to our foremen when performing their daily tasks.

CARNEGIE-ILLINOIS CHORUSES
The Carnegie-Illinois male, female and mixed choruses, whose membership consists of employees and immediate relatives of employees of the local mills, have been busy preparing this winter for a series of concerts to be held soon in this vicinity. The choruses will sing only numbers written by American composers. Songs and choruses which the average listener will easily understand and enjoy.

The first sacred concert, in which all the choirs will participate, will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church, Mahoningtown, on Sunday, February 21, at 7:45 p. m.

There are 31 members in the male chorus and 25 in the female chorus, combined to a total of 60 members in the mixed ensemble.

The officers of the organization are as follows:

President—Venor Bright.
Vice president—R. H. Kirkpatrick.
Director—William Richards.
Accompanist—Miss Mary Louise Kirkpatrick.

Librarian—Clyde Shepard.
Treasurer—Clyde Mayberry.
Secretary—Louis Ostrosky.

The choruses are rehearsing vigorously for these concerts and we can all rest assured that each performance will be worthwhile.

A BOWLING ACHIEVEMENT
In our last week's column we mentioned the fact that Miss Betty Vonnick and Miss Mary Duda, crack bowlers in the duckpin league of our assorting department, were entering the bowling tournament, the winner in Pittsburgh. As expected these girls "hit the bowling headlines" with some remarkable scores—Betty leading the pack with a total of 1020 pins in six games as follows: 138, 147, 136, 172, 186 and 241, which is "some" bowling in anybody's league. Mary also turned out a very fine total of 869 pins which also puts her in the touring running. These young ladies are going to make it tough for the rest when the 12 high qualifiers meet in Pittsburgh in March.

A team captain in the men's bowling league informed the writer that he contemplated "firing" his whole team and signing up Betty and Mary, feeling that the gonfalon will be in the bag with a couple of such superb bowlers. So, boys, you better dig in.

NOTES
Two of our apprentices, Thompson Abrattivo and Rayall Stone, are in the hospital for operations. We learn the boys are getting along nicely and will be out shortly.

and I walked away with the thought that with such minute inspection and attention to such small details, we could not help but feel proud of the quality of product we are supplying our customers from Shenango Works.

We then stopped and observed a fast moving hot mill crew in action. To the casual observer it had just the appearance of men taking hot packs from the furnace and the rollers. Inserting the pack into the rolls with the catcher receiving it and returning it to the roller—the same operation repeating itself a few times. However, to the skilled workmen all these movements have a very definite and important conclusion from the standpoint of meeting the customer's requirements, and every motion and operation is made with that very important object in mind. This "quality consciousness" on the part of our workmen is brought about by a continual program of intelligent education and close cooperation carried out between our supervisors and workmen.

Hot mill crews are keen to observe the quality values of the various mills, rollers and turns. They take pride in their work as individual crews, and are always anxious to "keep up there" in low seconds and various hot mill defects. The same spirit is manifested in every department that has to do with the quality of our product.

New Castle is the cradle of the tin plate industry of the United States, and from this cradle has emerged the fine plant we are now working in. Every plant which is the pride of everyone working in it and also of our city. It is a plant that has been a by-word in tin plate manufacture for four decades from the standpoint of quality, service and safety. We have built up a fine reputation during these many years with our very good customers and with the fine spirit of interest shown in the work from management down to mill sweeper, our reputation will be maintained and enhanced for many years.

No Date Fixed For Industrial Dinner

No new date has as yet been set for the Junior Chamber of Commerce's testimonial banquet for local industrialists. President, Prosely N. Jones of the Junior Chamber, said today. The dinner was postponed from February 24 when it was learned President E. F. Fairness of the U. S. Steel Corporation, could not attend that night.

The dinner is being planned for March.

Because of the community fathers-sons banquet at the Cathedral Monday evening, February 28, the bi-monthly meeting of the Junior Chamber will not be held that night. Instead, members will meet in The Castleton Tuesday, March 1, at 7:30 p. m.

The Junior Chamber wants the fathers-sons affair, sponsored by The Townsmen, to be "a success in every way," Jones added.

Democratic Heads Endorse Eckert

Following a meeting of the county party of Lawrence, Butler and Beaver counties held in Zelienople on Tuesday, it was announced that Congressman Charles R. Eckert of Beaver County had been unanimously endorsed for a third term in the national congress.

It was also announced that so far as is known Congressman Eckert would have no opposition in the Democratic primary.

One-Man Posse Captures Bandits

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—A one-man posse, mounted on a Western Union bicycle, was the hero of all Brooklyn today.

The youthful messenger hero, Robert Botcher, 22, led police in a dramatic capture of two suspected members of Brooklyn's traffic light robbers, a band that has robbed numerous motorists lately.

When the machine of John Gallagher, 27, paused for a traffic light,

Three Thugs Climbed Into the Car and Felled Gallagher, then fled as Botcher pursued them on his bike. Suddenly they stopped and threatened to shoot the youth unless he turned back. Botcher turned back, but only to summon police who captured two of the men.

The prisoners, said they were Capt. Caputo, 26, and Leonard Fugate, 25.

Prohibitionists In Session Here

Two veteran party supporters took part in Tuesday afternoon's rally of Lawrence county Prohibitionists in the First Church of the Nazarene, West Falls and North Beaver streets.

They were James G. Peebles, the 78-year-old county chairman who presided, and his good friend, Lawrence county resident of the Pulaski census, who both cast their first Prohibitionist vote in 1890.

The party, they said, was formed in 1890. Brief reviews of party work, with G. D. Harger, chairman of the Pennsylvania Prohibition committee and a guest here this week, participating, featured the program. The group adjourned to convene again March 22 at a place to be set by Chairman Peebles.
